

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This is the eleventh issue of The Socialist Register and we wish to express our warm thanks to our contributors and to our translators, Ben Brewster and Brian Pearce; and also to Martin Eve, our publisher. Once again, we should like to stress that the views expressed by any of our contributors are not necessarily shared by the others, or by the Editors. This must be taken as being particularly true of Leszek Kolakowski's "Rejoinder" to E. P. Thompson, which we regard in some ways as a tragic document. In a different perspective, we reject Walter Goldstein's formulations as to what a socialist government can or cannot do about multi-national corporations and nationalization. But it is obvious that his essay raises critical issues for the left, which we hope to see pursued in future volumes of the Register.

June 1974

R.M.
J.S.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- My Correct Views on Everything
By Leszek Kolakowski
- Revolutionary Intellectuals and the Soviet Union
By Rossana Rossanda
- Solzhenitsyn: A Political Analysis
By Jean-Marie Chauvier
- Marx on Democratic Forms of Government
By Hal Draper
- Gramsci and Lenin 1917–1922
By Alastair Davidson
- Reconstructing Australian Communism
By Winton Higgins
- Structuralism—Science or Ideology?
By Raoul Makarius
- Class Struggle and the Industrial Revolution
By John Saville
- Workers' Control and Revolutionary Theory
By Richard Hyman
- The Multi-National Corporation
By Walter Goldstein
- American Hegemony Under Revision
By V. G. Kiernan
- The Second Coming of Daniel Bell
By George Ross
- The State in Post-Colonial Societies: Tanzania
By John S. Saul